Privacy Statement

Yes! Your personal information is very important to us. We are aware of the internet privacy issues that face each and every one of us, and how it affects our daily lives. So, here at Credit Bureau Services, we would like you to know how we treat your information as a result of your visit to the Site. It will be our policy to maintain all information held in our files and in our possession strictly confidential. Our information on file will not be sold, leased, lent or otherwise used for any purpose other than which it is intended.

Credit Bureau Services tries to link to sites that share our high standards and has respect for privacy, but we cannot take responsibility for the content or the privacy standards they employ on or by other sites.

If for any reason we change our privacy commitment to you, we will post it right here, so that you will know what information we have gathered and how that information will be used.
